

CREYATE (CRE Youth Advocates TEam)

ASHLEY LI

Pronouns: she/her

Ashley is a student researcher and current vice president of the Melbourne School of Population and Global Health Student Society, which aims to improve community health and inform school staff any concerns from students.

Location:

Lives in Henan, China

Reason for joining the CRE:

Wish to contribute my personal understanding and skills to improve youth engagement

Topic areas of interest:

Mental health, youth health, education impact

Educational background:

Bachelor of Biomedicine (Neuroscience) & Master of Public Health

Skills I'm bringing to the CRE:

Quantitative data analysis, program evaluation

Languages spoken:

English, Chinese