

CREYATE (CRE Youth Advocates TEam)

DIANDRA PRIAMBODO

Pronouns: she/her

Diandra is a clinical year medical student at Universitas Indonesia with experience in medical research. She writes sexual health education content for Reproduksi and is part of the youth team at the Indonesian Adolescent Health Association (AKAR Indonesia). Diandra is active in the Australia-Indonesia space through the Australia-Indonesia Youth Association (AIYA).

Location:

Lives in Jakarta, Indonesia

Reason for joining the CRE:

Work with and learn from international peers to address gaps in adolescent health and wellbeing

Topic areas of interest:

Sexual and reproductive health, youth health, mental health

Educational background:

Bachelor of Medicine, Doctor of Medicine (expected graduation 2023)

Skills I'm bringing to the CRE:

Medical literature and database searching, community research, clinical perspective, low resource settings perspective

Languages spoken:

English, Indonesian