

CREYATE (CRE Youth Advocates TEam)

EFFY ABBSAR

Pronouns: she/her

Effy is an English/Mathematics MYLNS tutor, working with at-risk students at Lyndale Secondary College. She is also an ACCESS Monash Mentor, and has worked with the City of Greater Dandenong as a peer research assistant. She is passionate about evidence-based policy and practice, and her research on pregnancy infrastructure and gender equality was presented at the International Conference for Undergraduate Research in 2020.

Location:

Effy currently lives in Clayton, on the land of the Wurundjeri Woi Wurrung and Bunurong People.

Reason for joining the CRE:

Desire to contribute lived experience and enhance my understanding through working with others

Topic areas of interest:

Neurodivergent/ CALD/ refugee groups, and youth who have been in touch with the criminal justice system.

Educational background:

Currently studying a bachelor of Arts/Science at Monash University (Majoring in mathematics/psychology)

Skills I'm bringing to the CRE:

Writing/speaking, quantitative data analysis, marketing/health promotion and working with at risk youth.

Languages spoken:

Hindi, Urdu, English