

CREYATE (CRE Youth Advocates TEam)

IVY CRAW

Pronouns: she/her

Ivy has an affinity for music, community and research. Working the last five years in project/research assistant roles, Ivy spends her weekends playing with Porpoise Spit, a band closely embedded in the LGBTQI+ youth community, and helps to run community-based advocacy stalls at farmers markets across Victoria.

Location:

Living on Wadawarrung land
(Bellarine Peninsula, VIC), Australia

Reason for joining the CRE:

To support meaningful engagement between researchers and those communities who benefit from research findings.

Topic areas of interest:

Health promotion in school and community settings, equity and accessibility, sex education

Educational achievements:

La Trobe University Vice Chancellor's Excellence Scholarship

Skills I'm bringing to the CRE:

Close engagement with grassroots communities, professional experience working with cohort studies

Languages spoken:

English