

CREYATE (CRE Youth Advocates TEam)

JASMINE ELLIOTT

Pronouns: she/her

Growing up in rural Australia with mental illness, drew Jasmine to health advocacy. She is passionate about healthcare "access" - in all facets. Jasmine works as a Peer Support Moderator and National Youth Reference Group Member with headspace and as a Young Leader with the Youth Health Forum.

Location:

Works, lives and studies on Dja Dja Wurrung Land (Bendigo, VIC) in 2022

Reason for joining the CRE:

Hoping to make research more relevant and accessible to young people, and advocates

Topic areas of interest:

Mental health, health system navigation, and policy

Educational background:

Final year Bachelor of Medical Science/Doctor of Medicine + Diploma of Liberal Arts (Philosophy)

Skills I'm bringing to the CRE:

Health advocacy, consumer engagement, lived experience, writing and speaking

Language spoken:

English